

Dear Members and Partners,

As we bid farewell to July, we're excited to share a recap of a vibrant month filled with connection and collaboration. Over the past month, we organized four events that brought together 174 members and guests. We kicked off with a Diplomatic Business Lunch featuring the Ambassador of Uzbekistan on July 8th, followed by a memorable Diplomatic & Business Eurasian Tuesday in Abu Dhabi on July 15th. On July 22nd, we hosted our very first event in the capital of the Republic of Bashkortostan, Russia, and wrapped up the month with our Committees Business Breakfast on July 31st. If you missed any of these gatherings, you can view the event photos here.

We are also delighted to welcome the UAE Representative Office of the Ministry of Investment, Industry and Trade of Uzbekistan as our new Silver Member, along with three new individual members who joined our community in July.

Looking ahead to August, we have an exciting lineup of events prepared for you:

- Business Breakfast for Russian Speakers – August 14th (a brand new event format)
- Eurasian Tuesday in collaboration with the Singapore Business Council – August 19th
- CEO Breakfast – August 28th (another new event format)

Belarus is rapidly emerging as a leading medical tourism destination in Eastern Europe, offering high-quality care at 40–70% lower costs than Western Europe. With around 150,000 international patients annually, the country specializes in oncology, rehabilitation, dentistry, IVF, and cardiology. Short waiting times, European-standard services, natural health resorts, and convenient access make Belarus an attractive choice for patients from Russia, the Middle East, and neighboring countries.

In today's volatile global landscape, predictability has become the new benchmark for smart investing. Denis Karasyov, Vice President of Walton Global, CIS, emphasizes the strategic advantages of the U.S. market for investors from the CIS region. With its legal transparency, institutional strength, and accessibility to foreign capital, the U.S. offers unmatched stability and clarity. As traditional high-risk or passive strategies lose ground, diversification into structured international markets—especially the U.S.—is emerging as the only rational path for long-term capital preservation.
